A Letter of Memories

Listening to the birds and watching the flowers as they grow, reminds all of us of someone we came to know.

Taking note from the birds and lessons from the flowers, reminds all of us of God's love in many years of treasured hours.

The rain drops fall no more as the sun peers out from behind the cloud; shortly thereafter, a rainbow appears with God's promise, no doubt.

Looking ahead now, alongside the river bank stands the tree of life reflections appear of someone whom we all came to love day and night . . . taking life waters free

Laughter, joy are memories we hold of him cherishing them just as we cherish a gem

. . . not forgetting for a moment he's in God's memory too.
