IN LOVING MEMORY

Mrs. Helen Delores Greenwood

1930 ~ 2002

Mrs. Helen Delores Greenwood, affectionately known as Lois, was born to the late Georgia (nee Walker) and James Brathwaite, Sr. in Cleveland, Ohio on January 20, 1930.

Helen accepted the Lord as her personal Savior at an early age at St. Edward Catholic Church in Cleveland, Ohio. She attended, and was a graduate of St. Edward Catholic Church.

Helen was united in holy matrimony to Hugh Greenwood in 1956 following her relocation to Chicago, Illinois in the early 1950's. There were no children born to their union. In 2000, Helen joined Trinity Church while in Chicago.

Lois was a very loving person. She went out of her way to help people. Lois was well thought of and was loved by all of her friends and family. It was on Tuesday morning, July 23, 2002, that she expired at the Heritage House in Cleveland, Ohio.

She leaves to cherish her precious memory: two loving sisters, Rosia Lee Fortson and Luxora Lemons; a brother-in-law, Nepolian Lemons; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and treasured friends.

LOVINGLY SUBMITTED,

The Family

"Miss Me ~ But Let Me Go"

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared;
Miss Me ~ But Let Me Go.
For life is a journey we all must take,
And each must go alone ...
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
So, when you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrow in doing good deeds;
Miss Me ~ But Let Me Go.

Acknowledgment

Perhaps you telephoned your thoughts or sent a dish of food.
Perhaps you sent a potted plant or bouquet to set the mood.
Perhaps you sent a lovely card or offered us your car.
Perhaps you sat quietly in a chair, if so, we saw you there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much, whatever the part!
