

OBITUARY

James Thomas Oliphant Jr. was truly blessed and he touched everyone that knew him. James was born on December 7, 1944 to Ethel and James Thomas Oliphant Sr. in Wrens, Georgia. They moved to Florida in 1954, he was 10 years old. He grew up in Miami, Florida, where he met Aurora Brown and they were married on February 16, 1976. He went on to work different jobs one being a truck driver. As time went on James gave his life to God. In 2003, he accepted Christ as his savior. He attended Christ Fellowship Church of God in Christ, in Pompano Beach, Florida where Elder Robert Kintchen Jr. is the pastor.

On December 17, 2015, James was called home to be with the Lord. He leaves behind his wife of 39 years, Aurora T. Oliphant; his daughters, LeNasha Oliphant and Lynette Ingram and Richard Ingram (son-in-law); his son, Tyrone Smith and Marilyn (daughter-in-law). He leaves his sisters, Mae Taylor, Hattie Law and Henry Law (brother-in-law), Emma Brown and Rudine Hayes and a brother, Moses Oliphant. He also leaves behind his grandchildren, D'Quan Williams, TyKeeria Smith, Richard Ingram Jr. and a great grand, Ta'Shayla Smith, and a host of family and friends.

"IT IS WELL, IT IS WELL WITH MY SOUL...."

"For I am now ready to be offered, the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight. I have finished my course. I have kept the faith"-II Timothy 6:7

Order of Service

"And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes and there shall be no more death neither sorrow nor crying neither shall there be anymore pain for the former things are passed away!"

Memories

To Those I Loved and Those Who Loved Me

When I am gone, release me. Let me go
So I can move into my afterglow.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears, Be happy, we had so many years.

I gave you my love and you can only guess
How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I traveled alone.

So grieve a while for me if you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless those memories in your heart.

And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and say "Welcome Home".

THE BROKEN CHAIN

We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name.

In life we loved you dearly,
in death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
you did not go alone:
for part of us went with you,
the day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories,
your love is still our guide,
and though we cannot see you,
you are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken,
and nothing seems the same;
but God will call us one by one,

The chain will link again.

Acknowledgements

We would like to thank each one of you who found various ways to express friendship, love, sympathy and support during a time when it was most needed. May God continue to richly bless each of you - is our sincere prayer.
