Obituary

Jessie Willard Baldwin was born in Terrytown, Georgia December 06th, 1920, to the late Owen and Mary (Toni) Baldwin.

He spent his childhood in Vidalia, Georgia where he later met and married Susie Brown on August 10th, 1940.

They later moved to Miami, Florida and finally settled in Hallandale, Florida, where they raised their seven children.

Jessie fell to sleep in death on April 15th, 2011, at the age of 90.

Preceding him in death: Susie Baldwin (wife) and daughters: Essie Mae Wesley, Shirley Ann Baldwin and Linda Baker.

Jessie leaves to cherish his memories: Charles (Alice) Baldwin of Miami Gardens, Florida, Oteau (Jimmy) Holmes of Blakely, Georgia, Barbara (Jessie) Golden of Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, Jessie (Sandra) Baldwin, Jr. of Miami Gardens, Florida; Sons-in-law Robert (Ray) Wesley of Hollywood, Florida, Otis Baker of Jackson, Mississippi; Sisters: Dorothy Baldwin of Miami, Florida, Ella Mae Jones of Plainsfield, New Jersey; Sister-in-law Mary Smith of Jacksonville, Florida; cousins, nieces, and nephews, along with many sorrowing friends and neighbors.

And if the measure of a man's blessing is based on the size of his family, then Jessie was truly a blessed man. For his family also consisted of twenty-five grands, sixty great-grands and twenty-two great, great grandchildren- one hundred and seven total.

Fondest Memories

Daddy was a loving and caring husband and father. His family and love for God were his life. He was a jack of all trades, doing whatever was needed to provide for his family; laying roofing tiles, mechanic, fishing bait farm and his own trucking business (always busy, busy busy). He was known for always joking and telling stories of his childhood. He was an undiscovered song writer and his two most favorite songs were "Dee-Dee-Dee" and "Poor Little Baby" which he dedicated to all his grand-babies. And we can't forget "Cornbread Stew."

Daddy's greatest passion was to "EAT" and always said that when he leaves this world he would go with a full stomach. This he did until near the end when he couldn't hold anymore. (Smile).

He was loved by everyone and treated them all as family. To know him was to love him. His sense of humor will be remembered by all his children and grands.

Songs

“All Things Made New”

(Revelation 21:4)

- 1). “The signs of the times” prove God’s rule has begun.
In glory enthroned sits Jehovah’s Son.
The battle in Heaven He’s fought and won,
And soon on the earth shall God’s will be done.

[Sing Chorus]

- 2). Let all men the chaste new Jerusalem see,
The bride of the Lamb shining radiantly.
Adorned now with most precious gems is she,
And only Jehovah her light will see.

[Repeat Chorus]

- 3). This city so fair will be all men’s delight,
It’s gates will be open both day and night.
All nations will walk in her glory bright;
O servants of God, now reflect that light.

[Final Chorus]

[CHORUS]

Rejoice! For God’s tent is with men,
And He himself resides with them.
No more will there be pain or crying,
No sorrowing nor any dying;
For God has said: “I’m making all things new.
These words faithful are and true.”

“God’s Promise of Paradise”

(Luke 23:43)

- 1). A paradise our God has promised,
By means of Christ’s Millennial Reign,
When He’ll blot out all sin and error,
Removing death and tears and pain.

[Sing Chorus]

- 2). Soon here on earth, as God has purposed,
His son will cause the dead to rise.
Thus it will be as Jesus promised:
You’ll be with me in Paradise.

[Repeat Chorus]

- 3). Yes, Paradise our Lord did promise,
And He is now earth’s rightful King.
We daily thank our loving Father,
And from our hearts His praises sing.

[Final Chorus]

[CHORUS]

A paradise, the earth will be.
With eyes of faith, this we can see.
This promise Christ shall soon fulfill.
For he delights to do God’s will.
