*Dad,
Please don't feel bad for finding peace. For heaven has a piece of me.*

As I sit in a trance, taking a glance at the past as I remember your smile, I have you energy, you gave me my memories; that are unforgettable.

Your effortless glow, your much needed jokes, and your wisdom for growth will follow me. And though your passing has bothered me, I look up and smile. For every success, I'll hear you in heaven, as you proudly exclaim, "that is my child"

*I bet you see us mourning, but you want to see us smile.
Your assuring that our time apart, is only for a while. The biggest piece of our family chain, seems to have shattered in my hand. But I know as god calls us one by one, the chain will link again.*

Just please don't feel bad for finding peace. For heaven has a piece of me.

*Love,
Dee Dee*
