OBITUARY
OF LEROY CHANGE, SR.

Leroy Change, Sr. was born on September 7, 1917 to Will and Onnie Change in Mathew, Georgia.

In 1937, he relocated to Fort Lauderdale, Florida and remained here until his demise on December 20, 1996 at North Broward Medical Center in Pompano Beach, Florida.

Because of his love for farming, Leroy was affectionately known as the "Hog Man", who also loved cooking for others. He was a very stern individual who hardly said much but everyone knew he would get his point across.

He was employed for thirty six years for the Sealtest Corporation as a Truck Driver and finally retired in 1983.

He is survived by his loving wife of over twenty years: Annie Change; four sons: Leroy Change, Jr., Denny Wilkerson, James Lawrence and Willie Frank Burke; four daughters: Willie L. Johnson, Mary Strong, Tonya Elimene and Perpetual Wonjeku Fredricks; twenty-two grandchildren, including one whom he raised as his son, Lawrence Change; five great grandchildren; one brother, Walter Roland, one aunt, Sadie Jordan; three sisters-in-law, one brother-in-law and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Recessional

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His Name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of Death, I will fear no evil, For thou art with me. Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over. Surely Goodness and Mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the House of the Lord forever.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent a floral arrangement,
If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
As any friend would say;
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day;
Whatever you did, whatever your part,
We thank you so much,
From the bottom of our hearts.*
